

How to Access your Weill Cornell Medical College Library Resources:

A Guide for CTBR* Members

(revised 12/2015)

On-site Access

The CTBR affiliation with CTSC allows you access to the WCMC Library's resources which are listed on the Library website: <http://ctbr.hunter.cuny.edu/content/weill-cornell-medical-library-e-journals>

Once you are registered (ie., once you have a library card), you will have on-site access to over 7000 electronic journals, over 2500 electronic books, and over 100 databases. You will need your most current WCMC Library card to gain access to the library. Library cards are based on CTBR membership and are non-transferrable.

E-Journal Access

The WCMC Library has extended its e-journal licensing agreements with several publishers to include access for CTBR Members. Through this arrangement, you will have direct access to many e-journals that are not available through the Hunter College library. You will only be able to access these e-journals through the CTBR website (<http://ctbr.hunter.cuny.edu>). E-journal access is password protected.

TripSaver Service

The WCMC Library will provide you with electronic document delivery from their collections and interlibrary loan items available electronically at no cost. All items that are held within the WCMC collections and requested via TripSaver online form will be emailed to you within one business day of request submission. Interlibrary loan times depend on the lending library, but are generally emailed within 2-3 business days. Requests for books or items that cannot be obtained electronically will be returned to you and should be submitted to the interlibrary services at Hunter College for processing.

If you have any questions regarding the WCMC Library resources, please contact:

CTBR Support and Services

The CTBR is committed to fostering and encouraging research initiatives, especially those focused on reducing minority health disparities, for its investigators. The variety of support and services available provides opportunities for investigators to explore novel research in Cancer and Neuro/Behavioral Science, and to develop skills that will increase productivity and scientific output.

Our partnerships with the Clinical and Translational Science Center (CTSC) at Weill Cornell and the RCM Translational Research Network (RTRN) also provide our investigators with access to essential services and resources that aid in experimentation, community engagement, and research collaborations.

How to request an electronic document via TripSaver Service

FIRST TIME USERS:

1. Go to the WCMC Library website: <http://library.med.cornell.edu>
2. Select the “more...” link under “SERVICES”

The main content area is divided into several sections:

- Top Databases: A list of databases including PubMed, AccessMedicine, Harrison's, MD Consult, MICROMEDEX, Ovid, PsycInfo, UptoDate, and Web of Science.
- Related Sites: A list of related sites including CU Library, Patient Resource Center, NYP Hospital, Qatar eLibrary, and WCMC Archives, with a "more..." link.
- RESOURCES: A section with two columns of links: "e-Resources", "e-Journals", "Find a Citation" in the first column; and "e-Resources by Subject", "Tri-Cat (catalog)", "e-Books" in the second column.
- SERVICES: A section with two columns of links: "Classes", "Interlibrary Loan", "Computers", "Software" in the first column; and "Access to this Library/Others", "SCISSORS (research support)", "Alumni", "more..." in the second column. An orange arrow points from the "more..." link in this section to the second step in the instructions above.
- ABOUT THE LIBRARY: A section with two columns of links: "Hours", "LibNotes (blog)" in the first column; and "Art in the Library", "more..." in the second column.
- Help: A section with links for "Contact Us", "Ask a Reference Question", "Staff Directory", and "FAQs | Guides".
- News & Announcements: A section with a news item dated "Aug 2" about a new art show and a "more..." link.

Interlibrary Loan & TripSaver

Use this Service

WCMC Library offers two different document delivery services for patrons: Interlibrary Loan and TripSaver.

	Interlibrary Loan	TripSaver
Applicable materials	Books, journal articles, and other items the library does not own	Journal articles and book chapters the library does own
Service	Digital copies of journal articles are sent via email to the patron. Books are held for pickup at the Circulation Desk	Print items are scanned and sent via email to the patron. Electronically available items are emailed.
Cost	free for members of the WCMC community	$5 per requested item. Patrons are not charged unless they give their explicit prior consent.

Eligibility and access

Anyone with a valid ID from NewYork Weill Cornell Medical Center that has a Weill Cornell Medical Library barcode attached to it, or anyone who is sponsored with full borrowing privileges may use Interlibrary Loan or TripSaver. A barcode can be obtained by visiting in person the Circulation Desk, which is just inside the Library on 69th and York.

How to submit a request

See the FAQ, How do I login and make a request for the first time?

Patrons who wish to submit an interlibrary loan request in person may visit the Interlibrary Loan Services. To talk to someone from ILL, ask at the Circulation Desk.

Turnaround time

Requests are typically processed within one business day of receiving them. Plan ahead when requesting materials. The time taken to fill a request depends on several

5. Read the instructions on the page and then select “this link” to begin completing your profile form, making sure to fill in all available fields.

NOTE: In order to expedite the processing of your requests, please complete the field marked “Department” by typing the words, “CTSC-GENE CENTER.”

Make sure to use your most recent library card information for your profile.

How do I login and make an Interlibrary Loan request for the first time?

1. Access the Interlibrary Loan Tripsaver request form via this link, which you may wish to bookmark.
2. Log in as a First-time User. Your login email is the same email address that appears on your WCMC Library Circulation record. This may not be the same email address you are currently using for your as your ILL/Tripsaver account. If you don't recall the email address you used when you registered at our Circulation desk you may check this information by visiting Tri-Cat's Patron Login page. Supply your name, barcode (on the back of your ID) and select Display Record. You will then need to select the box entitled Modify Personal Info. Your recorded email address will then display.
3. Upon signing in as a first-time User, your Password is your WCMC Library-issued barcode, which should be on the back of your ID card. This field is case-sensitive. Enter your barcode using the UPPER CASE only; otherwise, it will not be recognized. Also, enter the character "0" as a zero, and not the letter "O". Hint: the second character in your barcode is, almost certainly, a zero (0). Then, click on the LOGIN button. This should take you to the "Change Personal Information" screen.
4. Please provide information, as requested. Fields marked with an asterisk must be filled in. When you're done, click on the "Submit Information" button, and there you have it! You're In! Welcome!
5. You may change your personal information or password at anytime by scrolling down to the section "Tools" down at the bottom of the sidebar.

Notice of copyright restrictions

The Copyright Law of the United States (Title 17, U.S. Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a copy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any other purpose than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use", that user may be liable for copyright infringement. The Institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order, if, in its judgement, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of the copyright law. Absence of copyright notice does not necessarily indicate that the material is not copyrighted. The law no longer requires such a notice.
